

MCBRIDE SISTERS
COLLECTION

2019 Central Coast Chardonnay

The McBride Sisters were raised separately among the vines of Monterey, California and Marlborough, New Zealand. When destiny led them to each other, they quickly bonded over their shared passion for good wine and in 2005 they started a wine company together. Today, the award-winning McBride Sisters Collection wines directly reflect the terroirs of the sisters' youth, with wine styles and flavors designed for all palates.

Pale golden color. Aromas of lemon curd and honey, pineapple and ripe pear. Soft and balanced texture, with a slight hint of toasty oak that balances the palate and persists with the fruit. Complexity and character without weight.

Drink with salmon garnished with fresh dill, Alfredo pasta with spring peas, or grilled portobello mushrooms.
